

International School for Jain Studies

TEACHING FOR PEACE

An Experiential Learning for Nonviolence

For teachers, consultants and educators

Date: July 11-31, 2022

Place: Delhi, Jaipur, Jalgaon & Pune

Fee: US $550

3 Credit Units

9th Annual Residential Teacher Training Program

Learn about nonviolence (ahimsa) and its applications; observe the use of ahimsa principles both inside and outside the classroom; study Gandhi and learn how he practiced the concept of ahimsa; explore historical and living examples of ahimsa and discuss them with fellow participants; visit a variety of schools and interact with students, fellow teachers and management; discuss concepts like tolerance, equanimity, forgiveness, harmony, sharing, friendships and self-discipline, rational thinking, rehabilitating tough & slow learning kids along with culture and history of India.

This residential program is deigned for teachers, consultants, educators who wish to integrate practical nonviolence into their lives, classrooms and schools. Since its launch in 2012, so far 154 participants from different institutions have been trained through this program

The program provides an opportunity to visit schools, Gandhi museum. The fee covers lectures, vegetarian meals, a twin sharing room, entry fee of Ajanta Caves and in-land travel in India associated to the program.

Visit www.isjs.in for more details & apply online

LAST DATE: February 28, 2022

Your local contact for any additional questions and guidance

Mrs. Kusum Jain, Richmond Director

E-mail: kusumljain@hotmail.com | Ph: +1- 804 651 3758

Admission Office, India

E-mail: admission@isjs.in