Funding Study Abroad

Studying abroad does not have to be expensive! VCU offers a variety of program options to fit most students' budgets and the Education Abroad office assists students with identifying and applying for funding.

Most financial aid and scholarships that you already receive can be used toward study abroad.

Scholarships:

There are VCU scholarships to study abroad as well as nationally competitive scholarships, like the Benjamin A Gilman Scholarship for Pell-grant recipients. Begin your search on our site and at StudyAbroadFunding.org and DiversityAbroad.com

VCU Programs

VCU in Italy: SRISA

Terms: Academic Year, Fall, Spring, Summer

This program gives students the opportunity to take a variety of arts, language, and culture courses in the home of the Renaissance, all taught in English. SRISA coursework offers highly personalized instruction and experiential learning, enhanced with an internship program and a range of extracurricular activities, including art exhibits, cultural seminars, beyond-the-classroom learning, guest lecturers, and museum visits.

VCU in Qatar: VCUQatar

Terms: Academic Year, Fall, Spring

The exchange program at VCUQatar is a unique opportunity to earn VCU credits while studying design in a fascinating location. You will have an insider's view of life in the gulf region and the rich culture that suffuses the area. The turquoise-blue waters of the Persian Gulf provide a picturesque backdrop for the constantly changing landscape of Doha. Each year, students from the School of the Arts apply for this very competitive program.

International Student Exchange Program

Choose from over 300 universities around the world offering summer, semester and year-long programs. Apply to up to 10 institutions on a single application. ISEP offers two types of placements: ISEP-Exchange (program fee based on VCU's in-state tuition, room and board) and ISEP-Direct (program fee based on the host university's tuition, room and board).
